INT. ONE-STOP FAY'S ROOM - DAY

Nettie comes in and hands Fay some junk food. Arthur waits in the doorway. The room is dim, the television flickers, a televangelist preaches.

NETTIE

Fay, listen. Elizabeth's bad sick.
I gotta go down to the hospital.

Fay says nothing. The preacher prays.

NETTIE (cont'd)

Pay attention, Fay. Our sister is sick. Fay, you hear me? Elizabeth is in the hospital. I'll be back as soon as I can.
C'mon Arthur.

Door SLAMS. FAY'S POV; Through her window, she watches Nettie and Arthur climb into Nettie's truck.

TV EVANGELIST

Friends! Are you troubled?

FAY

Elizabeth's sick. Listen Fay, pay attention. I'm listening.

TV EVANGELIST (O.S.)

Call us now. We'll say a special prayer for your loved one.

FAY

Don't worry... I'll take care of it.

Fay picks up the phone.

EXT. HOSPITAL - DAY

Don, Myrtle and Sybill enter through the sliding glass door.

INT. HOSPITAL WAITING AREA - DAY

Elevator doors open to reveal; a hallway, rows of molded plastic chairs, a Nurses' station, the large window and door of Miss Elizabeth's private room. Through the glass, the interior of Elizabeth's room is visible. Inside, DR. CHEUNG, (40's) Asian, handsome, fit, is at Miss Elizabeth's side.

Don, Myrtle, and Sybill step off the elevator. Candy greets them.

CANDY

Sybill, you got here so fast. I just left you a message.

SYBILL
Where is Mother?

CANDY Right there, but you can't go in now.

Dr. Cheung steps out of Elizabeth's room as Sybill,unseen by Cheung goes past. Miss Elizabeth lies motionless hooked up to machines.

DR. CHEUNG
She's had a severe stroke. If she wakes up we can better assess the damage. Have you noticed any premonitory symptoms?

CANDY	MYRTLE
I don't understand? What does that mean premonitory?	What does that mean IF she wakes up?

DR. CHEUNG (cont'd) Clumsiness, dizziness, blurring of vision.

MYRTLE
The other day she hesitated a long time on the stairs. But, she never complained.

DR. DON
Well, you know she wouldn't.

Sybill steps back out into the waiting area.

SYBILL
Doctor? When will she wake up?

DR. CHEUNG
As I was explaining, the next few hours are critical. All we can do now is wait.

DR. CHEUNG's pager goes off.

SYBILL
But she has to wake up. I HAVE to talk to her. You don't understand.
I...

DR. CHEUNG
Excuse me. I have to answer this.

DR. DON
 (walking away with Cheung)
 Thank you, George.

MYRTLE
 (whispering to Sybill)
 Where are your manners? He's trying to help Mother.

SYBILL
 But, I have to talk to her.

MYRTLE
 This is just like you. It's not about what you want Sybill. Mother is...Mother may be...

Myrtle cries. Candy hugs her. Don returns.

CANDY
 Y'all let's don't fight. Let's just try and get Mother through this.

DR. DON
 That's right, let's think positive.
 We all want the same thing; a speedy recovery for Miss Elizabeth.

The elevator doors open. Arthur and Nettie step off the elevator. Candy rushes to hug Arthur then straightens his clothes.

CANDY
 Oh, honey.

MYRTLE
 Hey, Aunt Nettie.
 (letting out a little sob)
 Arthur.

DR. DON
 (a firm handshake)
 Arthur, Nettie.

ARTHUR
 Bummer of a birthday, Sis.

SYBILL
 Oh, great. You're drunk.

ARTHUR
 Yes, I am! And true to form,
 Sister, you are uptight.

EXT. SWIMMING HOLE - DAY

A PARTY in full swing. MUSIC blares from a giant jam-box. A group of TEENS are partying, among them Sean and APRIL RIDLEY (18), a red-neck. Kids swing on a tire out over the water and drop. SPLASHING. Sean and April make-out. MORE SHOUTS. LAUGHTER.

TEEN BOY

Hey, April, get a room!

April flips the boy a bird without stopping their make-out session. Karen pulls up to the swimming hole.

KAREN

Sean, get over here!

SEAN

(sauntering to the car)
What?

KAREN

You ass-hole. I've been looking all over for you.

SEAN

Not my problem.

KAREN

Oh great. You're high. That's just great.

INT. HOSPITAL - MISS ELIZABETH'S ROOM - DAY

Sybill, distraught, sits with Miss Elizabeth whispering in her ear.

INT. HOSPITAL - WAITING AREA - LATER

Myrtle and Sybill sit outside Miss Elizabeth's room. Myrtle looks through a magazine. Don's jacket is draped on the back of a chair. Arthur nods off. Nettie smokes. Don is visible through the window, he sits beside Miss Elizabeth's bed holding her hand. The evening news is on.

TV ANNOUNCER 2

Good evening, it's Friday June seventeenth. More tension between the U.S. and U.S.S.R.

(MORE)

TV ANNOUNCER 2 (cont'd)
An accounting of the number of nuclear warheads...

Sybill uncharacteristically bites her nail. Myrtle reaches up and swats her hand out of her mouth.

MYRTLE
Lord, Sybill, what is wrong with you?

Sybill shakes her head.

MYRTLE (cont'd)
Oh, for God's sake. What could you possibly have to talk to Mother about that is so urgent?

SYBILL
It's personal, about Mother's past.

MYRTLE
Personal? I am her daughter too.

SYBILL
It's about Jewell Rife.

MYRTLE
Jewell Rife? You've lost your mind.
He must be long dead, there's nothing urgent about him.

Candy approaches with coffee. Don joins them in the waiting area. Candy hands him a cup.

SYBILL
I can't believe she's had a stroke.
Not now, when I need to talk to her.

MYRTLE
For goodness sake, Sybill. You act like Mother had a stroke to inconvenience you. I'm sure if she had her druthers she'd be talking with you right now.

Candy gives Sybill a coffee, and pats her on the shoulder. Sybill quickly gets up and walks away. Myrtle slams her magazine shut.

MYRTLE (cont'd)
Though with you acting so crazy I don't know why she'd want to!

INT. HOSPITAL - WAITING AREA - LATER

Karen and Sean sit with Arthur. Arthur gives Sean a look of recognition. Sean is still stoned. Television plays, shots of Cape Canaveral and the astronauts. Nettie smokes a cigarette.

INT. HOSPITAL - MISS ELIZABETH'S ROOM

Sybill puts her face on the pillow right next to Elizabeth.

SYBILL

Wake up, Mother. Why did you do it?
You have to tell me. Did you kill him? Wake up! Please wake up.

INT. HOSPITAL - WAITING AREA - SAME

Through the glass, Myrtle, Nettie and Candy watch Sybill.

NETTIE

What's got in to her?

MYRTLE

She's lost her mind. Some nonsense about Jewell Rife, if you can believe that.

Nettie looks at Myrtle surprised.

NETTIE

What about him?

MYRTLE

She says she's had some dream or memory or some such. Of course she won't say what. Says she has questions only Mother can answer.

Nettie walks to the back of the waiting room and looks out the window. The sun is going down over the mountains.

CANDY

(indicating Sybill)
Look at her.

MYRTLE

Unbelievable, it must be menopause.

INT. HOSPITAL - WAITING AREA - NIGHT

ANGLE ON, the clock above the Nurse's station, it's 9:30 p.m. Don speaks to a NURSE. Across the room the family waits.

DR. DON
They'll only allow one of us to stay tonight. So why don't you all go home and get some rest.

Sybill rises abruptly goes into Elizabeth's room. Don shakes his head and the others disperse.

INT. HOSPITAL MISS ELIZABETH'S ROOM - LATER

It's late, the lights are low. Sybill, Candy and Myrtle sit at Elizabeth's bedside. Candy chuckles as she watches television. Myrtle reads. Sybill sips coffee and watches her mother intently. There is a knock on the door. A pretty big-hipped nurse, MRS. PALLUCCI (40), a New Yorker steps in.

MRS. PALLUCCI
Excuse me, ladies. I'm Lana Pallucci the Nurse Supervisor. Only one family member is allowed overnight, so who's it gonna be?

Myrtle and Candy look at Sybill, note her look of determination, and gather their things.

INT. HOSPITAL - MISS ELIZABETH'S ROOM - NIGHT

Sybill's fallen asleep with one arm across her mother.

FADE OUT.

INT. HOSPITAL - WAITING AREA - DAY

Arthur puts his head in his hands.

ARTHUR

DR. DON

(patting his shoulder)

ARTHUR

I can't stand to see it, Doc.

Don goes to escort Nettie in the room. Mrs. Pallucci walks by with her raincoat and purse.

ARTHUR (cont'd)

Excuse me M'am these fluorescent lights are doing precious little for your good looks or mine.

Mrs. Pallucci laughs.

ARTHUR (cont'd)

Could you please cut off some of these god-damn lights.

She switches off a row of lights.

 (getting up)
 Forgive my language, Ma'am, could I ask you one more favor? Would you like to take a little spin with me?
 Go out for a drink, perhaps?

MRS. PALLUCCI
 (laughing)
 I don't think so.

NETTIE
 (overhearing) God-damn it, Arthur. You ought to be ashamed of yourself.

ARTHUR
 (following Mrs. Pallucci)
 I'm not myself. Perhaps some other time.

MRS. PALLUCCI
 For future reference, the name is
 Mrs. Pallucci.

ARTHUR
 How do you spell that?

Mrs. Pallucci gets on the elevator, laughing.

 (doors close in his face)
 Death is a desperate hour.

SYBILL
What's going on?

NURSE
I'm sorry, but I need you to step aside.

SYBILL
No wait. She can't die!

NURSE
Ma'am please, step back.

SYBILL
She'll get better. She has to tell me, I have to know.

INT. HOSPITAL WAITING AREA - DAY

Candy gets off the elevator, wearing a raincoat, shaking her
